Hi everyone,

Anton here.

What I've been up to in January:

1. Mostly running (did 98km this month with one extra run coming up in few hoys). Join my club on Strava <https://www.strava.com/clubs/antiantihuman> and let's run together.
2. Writing a lot!

I wrote 10 posts on my new blog!

I also started my first ever blog in Ukrainian language <https://neviglas.com/>

Both of those sites were done with Alto and I'm really happy with it!

I added few more customization options - Alto is getting better and better.

Check out guides <https://docs.alto.so/metadata>

There are more things I would like to share but also will try to keep this email short. Till next time!

Anton
